

The Maryland Bar Application:

— Deadlines, Disclosures and Dilemmas —

- 1) Number of days spent taking the bar exam: 2
- 2) Number of hours spent completing the bar application in Maryland: 220
- 3) Learning how to complete the bar application effectively and efficiently: priceless

Claudia Diamond, assistant dean for academic and writing support, will expertly guide you through the Maryland Bar Exam application and provide you with important insight to help you:

- understand the timeline for filing and the logistics of the exam itself
- navigate difficult questions such as criminal history, debt disclosure, character and fitness
- learn how educational institutions and individuals play a role in your application
- become familiar with how the Virginia, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C., bar exams differ from the Maryland exam.
